

Equalities Statement

Coram Voice will promote equality of opportunity and equal treatment as an integral part of good practice, within and outside the work place. The organisation is committed to creating a working environment in which the contribution and needs of everyone are fully valued and recognised. All those associated with Coram Voice in any capacity are expected to work together to achieve this objective.

It is an important priority for Coram Voice to be accessible to all those who need our services. We will ensure that our service delivery and employment practice is excellent and transparent.

Does Coram Voice live up to this statement?

If you feel that you have not been treated in accordance with the values in this statement we would very much wish to know about your experience. You can contact any of the Coram Voice staff or ring the head office in London on 020 7833 5792 or ring the freephone for children and young people on 0808 800 5792. Your comments will be taken seriously and dealt with.
