

Research report

10,000 voices

the views of children in care on their well-being

Contents

The Your Life, Your Care Surveys	6
Introduction	7
Who responded	10
Relationships	16
Trusted adult	17
Relationship with carers	19
Friendships	26
Family relationships	33
Pets	37
Summary - Relationships	39
Being in care	41
Relationship with social workers	42
Understanding the reasons for being in care	48
Voice and involvement in decision-making	51
Stigma, privacy, and discrimination	55
Summary - Being in care	58
Daily life	59
Where children in care live (placements)	60
Having fun and taking part in activities outside school	66
Being outdoors in nature	68
Opportunities to be trusted	70
Practising life skills	71
School, college and skills	73
Summary - daily life	81
Well-being	83
Having worries and feeling supported	84
Happiness with appearance	87
Life getting better	88
Overall well-being	90
Summary - Well-being	103
Discussion	106
Appendix - Methodology	110

List of Tables and Figures

Table 1	The number of responses by year of survey completion	10
Table 2	Children and young people's sex by age group	11
Table 3	Children and young people's ethnicity by age group	12
Table 4	Children and young people's placements by age group	13
Table 5	Number of placements by the young person's ethnicity	15
Table 6	Knowing identity of their social worker	48
Table 7	Feeling embarrassed by actions of adults by placement type	56
Table 8	Having fun at the weekend age 4-7yrs	66
Table 9	Having fun at the weekend age 8-10yrs	67
Table 10	Taking part in activities or hobbies outside of school or college 11-18yrs	67
Table 11	Comparison of well-being: young people in care and in the general population	95
Table 12	Low ratings (0-4) on the ONS scales by sex and comparison with peers	96
Table 13	Indicators tested for association with low and very high well-being 11-18yrs	115
Table 14	Regression model low well-being n=3,897	116
Table 15	Regression model very high well-being n=3,096	118
<hr/>
Figure 1	Your Life, Your Care Bright Spots well-being indicators	8
Figure 2	The distribution of responses by age	11
Figure 3	Length of time in care	13
Figure 4	Number of placements since entering care for young people	14
Figure 5	Length of time in care and number of placements	14
Figure 6	Young people's ethnicity and their length of time in care	14
Figure 7	Percentage of children who had a trusted adult by age	18
Figure 8	Trust in carer by placement type 4-7yrs	20
Figure 9	Trust in carer by placement type 8-10yrs	20
Figure 10	Trust in carer by placement type 11-18yrs	20
Figure 11	Perception of whether their carers noticed feelings	23
Figure 12	Frequency of talking to carers about things that matter	25

Figure 13	Children and young people's friendships	27
Figure 14	Young people's feelings about being able to do the same as their friends	31
Figure 15	Internet access outside of school and ability to do the same things as friends	32
Figure 16	Satisfaction with the frequency of family contact (8-10yrs)	34
Figure 17	Satisfaction with the frequency of family contact (11-18yrs)	34
Figure 18	Trust in social workers	43
Figure 19	Length of time in care and young people's trust in their social worker	44
Figure 20	Number of social workers in the last 12 months	46
Figure 21	Children and young people's understanding of why they were in care	49
Figure 22	Feeling included in decision-making	52
Figure 23	Feeling safe in placements	61
Figure 24	Feeling settled	63
Figure 25	Liking bedrooms	65
Figure 26	Spending time outdoors pre-pandemic	69
Figure 27	Opportunities to practise life skills 'all/most of the time' or 'sometimes' by age	72
Figure 28	Liking school	74
Figure 29	Carers' interest in children and young people's education	76
Figure 30	Fear of going to school because of bullying	78
Figure 31	Worrying about feelings or behaviour	85
Figure 32	Happiness yesterday: children aged 4-7 and 8-10yrs	90
Figure 33	Factors associated with well-being for children aged 4-10yrs	93
Figure 34	Looked after young people's ratings on the three well-being scales	94
Figure 35	Percentage rating as 'low' on three well-being scales by ethnicity	96
Figure 36	Young people's positivity about their future	98
Figure 37	High or very high positivity about the future by age	98
Figure 38	Factors associated with well-being for young people aged 11-18yrs	102
Figure 39	Factors associated with well-being for children in care	108